THE CARDINAL

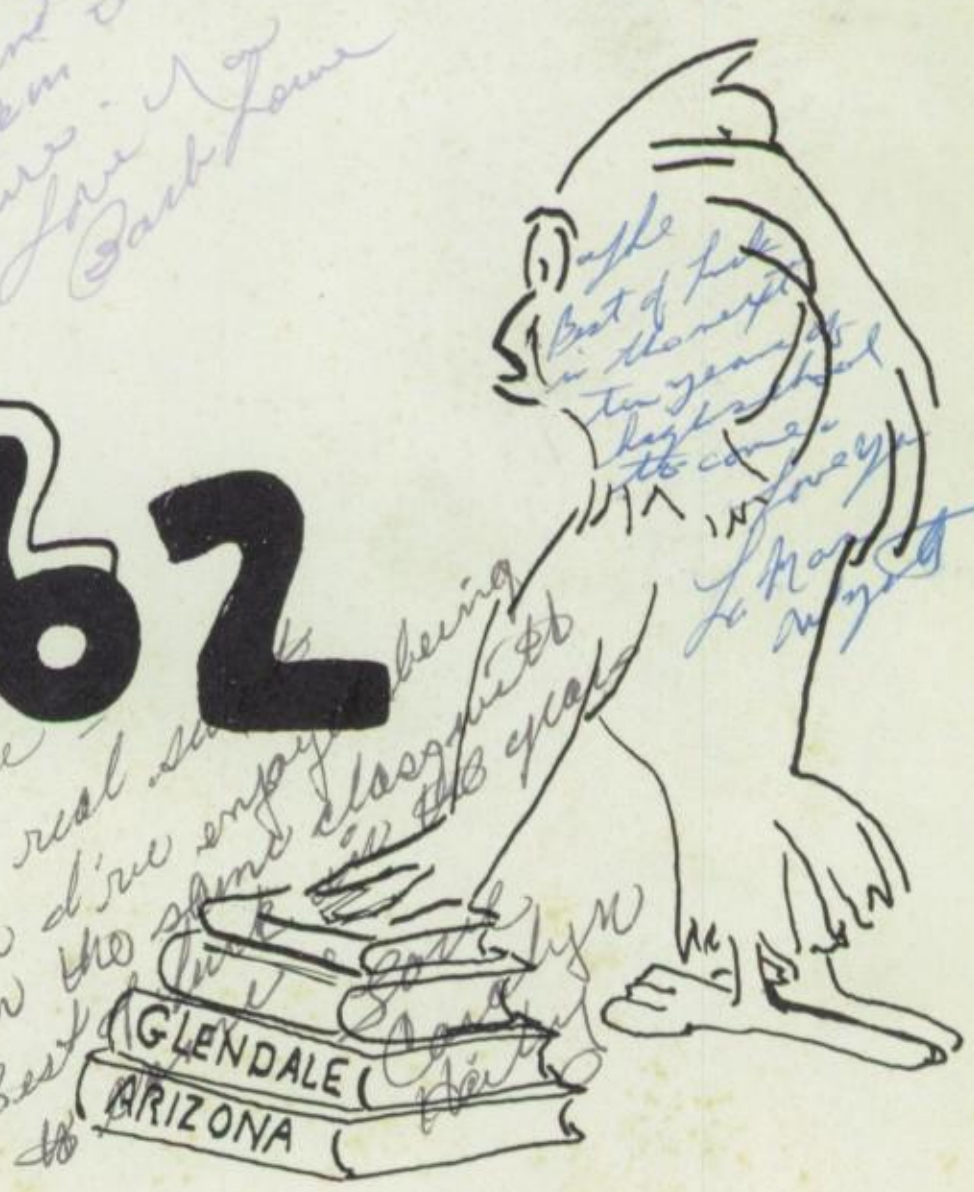
THE ASSOCIATED STUDENT BODY of

GLENDALE HIGH SCHOOL

Presents

THE GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY EDITION

1912 1962



Dedication

If these walls could tell us the secrets they have gathered over the past 50 years, we would have much more intimate information than we have been able to gather from old files and old yearbooks. They would tell of business organizations first considered in these halls, marriages contemplated here which have produced more students to come here to originate more ideas, and of the hundreds of GHS students who have made determined resolutions to rise above their destinies.

It is to these thousands of common ordinary students who have gone on to be successful, success measured by income, happiness, service to mankind or any other criteria, that we dedicate this Golden Anniversary edition of the CARDINAL.

Dear Dawn,
Just a short note to let you know I'm thinking of you. I hope you have had a wonderful summer. I'm sorry I haven't written more often but I've been busy working and playing. I'll be back in Tempe on the 25th of May and I'll be looking forward to seeing you then. I hope you will remember me for ever, the same way I will remember you. I hope our friendship will last forever. I hope you have a great summer and I hope to see you again next year. Take it easy. Have all the fun you can. This summer was the best. I love you like a sister. Love you always,

Foreword

In 1912 the main building of Glendale High School was built. It was the first high school in the Glendale district and it succeeded the one-room school in the back room of a small frame building. Since 1912 the GHS campus has grown to its present day proportions.

During the past fifty years the voices of many different students and teachers have echoed through the halls of Glendale High. This summer, after fifty years of service, the old walls of the main building will be torn down. The face of the campus has been changed by the erection of new buildings.

Glendale High students have come . . . and gone . . . taking with them the fruits of knowledge so carefully bestowed upon them by the most worthy Glendale High School faculty. Each student who passes through the front door of Glendale High School into his future takes with him very special memories . . . memories the 1962 Cardinal staff has endeavored to capture in this edition of your yearbook.

The Administration

THE BOARD OF EDUCATION, left to right, Mr. John F. Long, Mrs. Graydon B. Hall, Mr. Pat Taylor, Mr. Arthur Sine, Clerk, Dr. Joseph P. Voorhees, President, and standing, Mr. Don Sanderson who took Mr. Taylor's place on the board in January.

THE STUDENTS and staff of Glendale High School can take justifiable pride in the fine traditions that have been established and maintained during the half-century of Glendale High's existence. During this period the facilities and curriculum have been greatly expanded to provide for increased enrollments and the diverse educational needs of students. Standards of scholarship and citizenship have remained high. The success of Glendale High graduates in professional and business fields reflects the effectiveness of their schooling. The continued cooperative efforts of students, parents, and the staff will help to ensure years of success in the future.

MR. MELVIN ZINSER
District Superintendent

THIS PUBLICATION of the 1962 Cardinal Yearbook marks the fiftieth anniversary of the foundation of Glendale High School. This year also marks a milestone in the history of Glendale High School in that the last remnant of the original school will be replaced with a new structure. We hope that this new structure will "witness" and symbolize for the next fifty years the growth, loyalty, and learning that the "old School witnessed" and symbolized for the first half century.

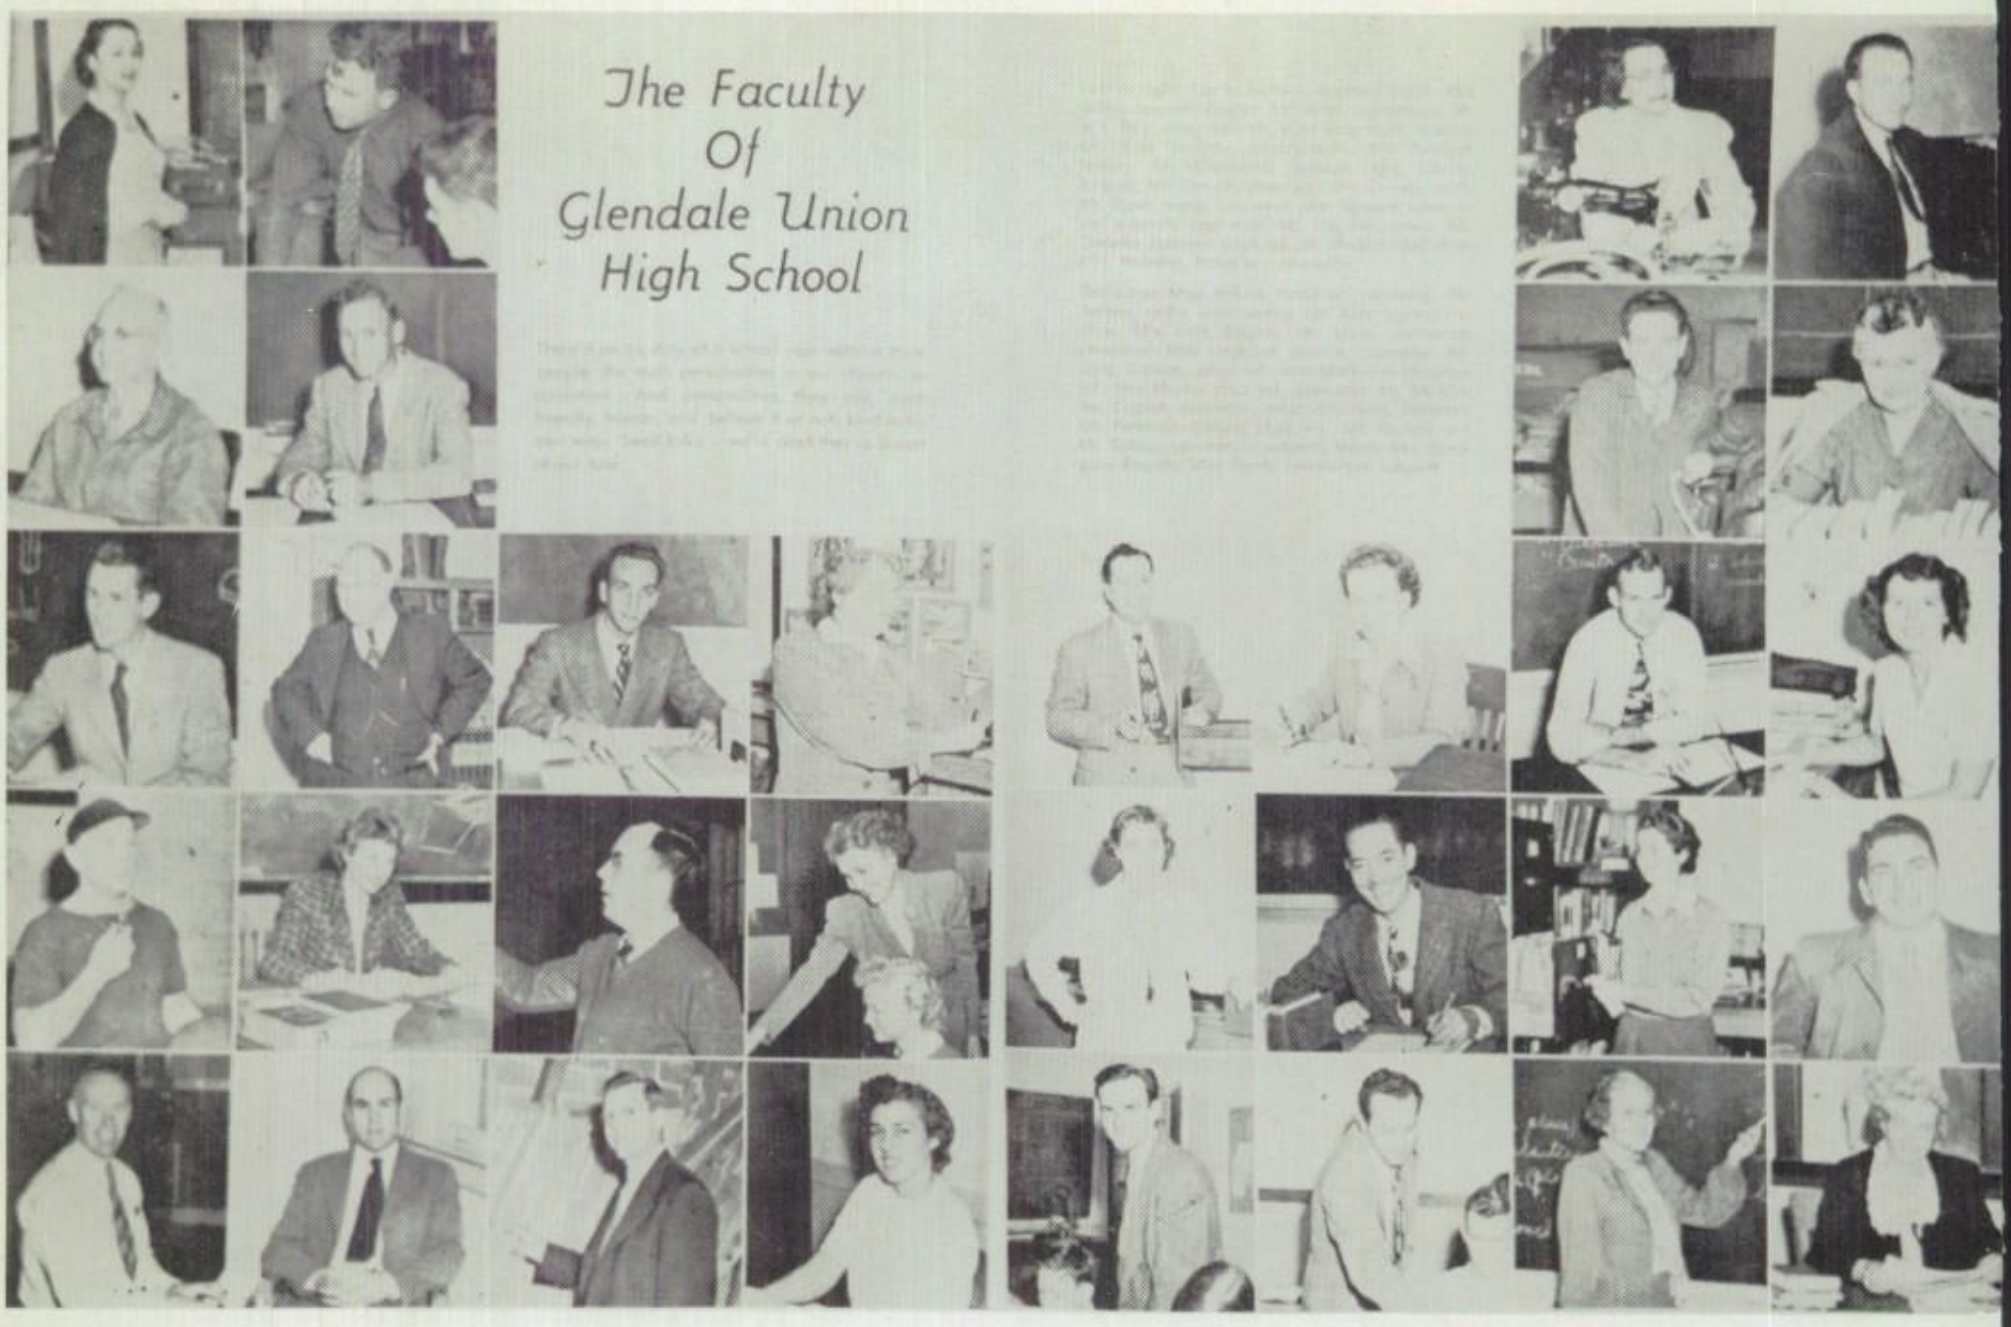
The Faculty Of Glendale Union High School



SINCE 1948, the GHS faculty has grown larger. Many of the "old timers" pictured above are still here, or have retired recently. Do you recognize any of them?

It is our own Mr. Owen Allen, showing GHS'ers, in 1936, wha it is all about.

Mr. Tammen left an indelible mark on the minds of all his students. He will be long remembered by them.

Faculty

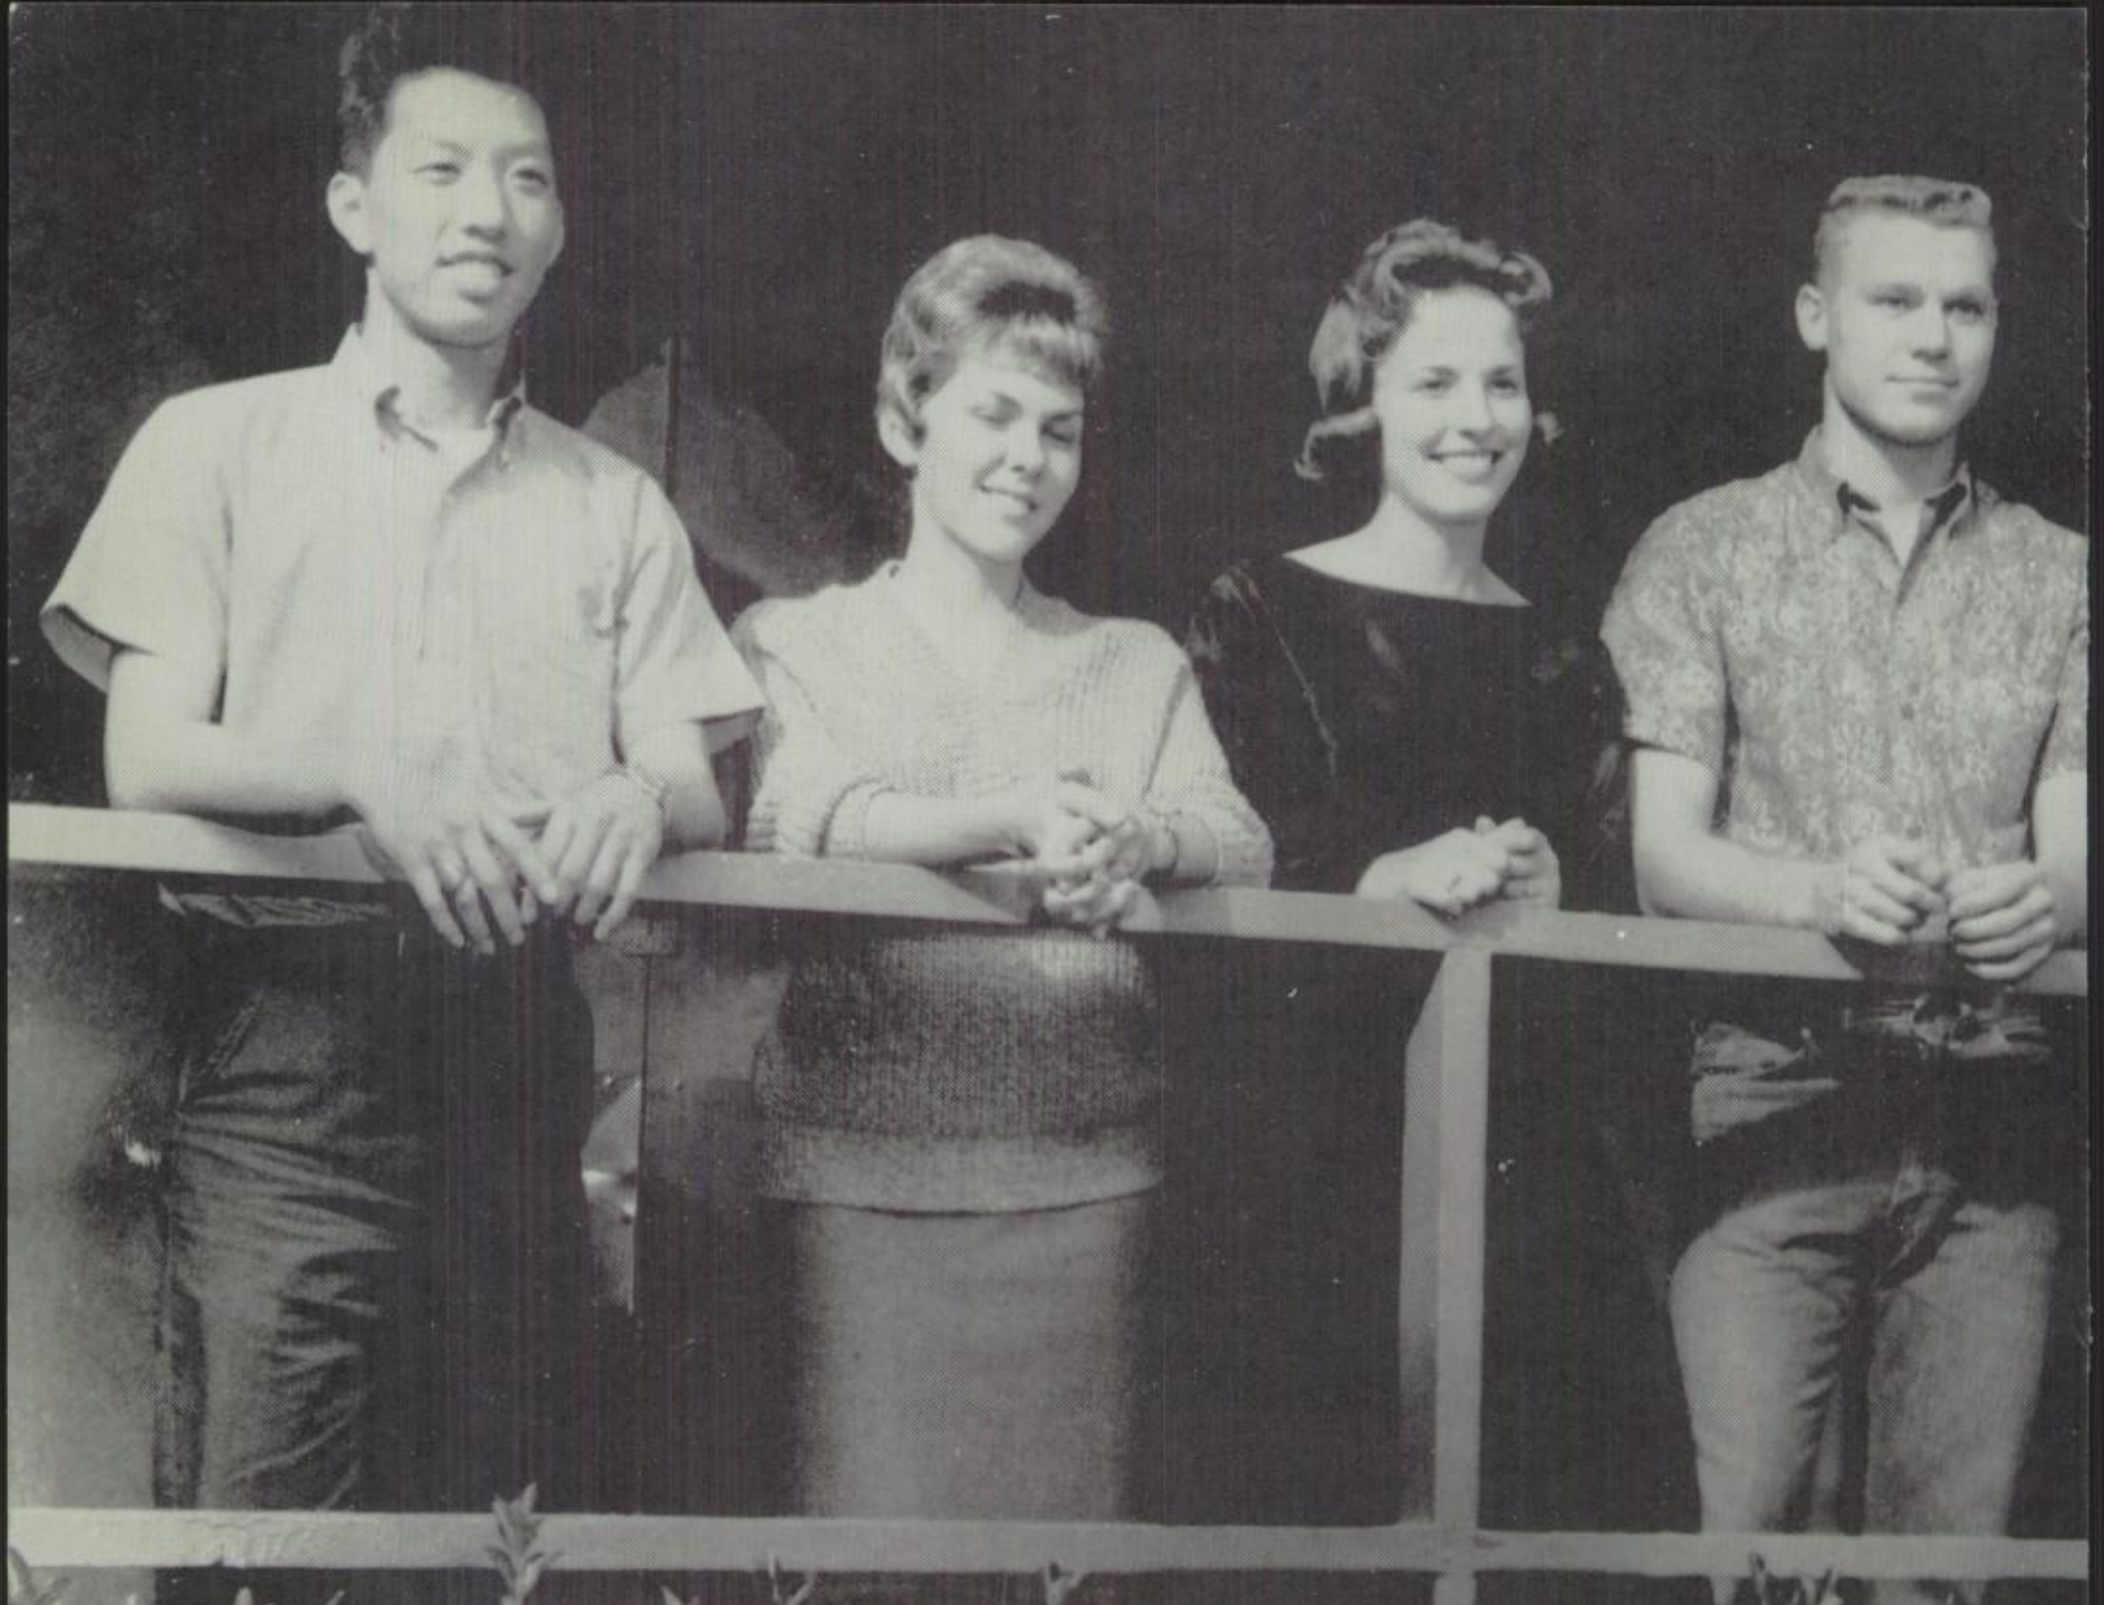
Seniors



SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS: Owen Tang, Vice President; Jeanne Castle, Treasurer; Beverly Barie, Secretary; and Glenn Weinberger, President.

WE SENIORS, Glendale's contribution to the world's knowledge, can remember the time, in the dim remote past, when we walked . . . or ran . . . humbly through the halls . . . bewildered by the maze of rooms . . . awed by the towering upperclassmen, and trying to dodge same. Then, suddenly we were sophomores, no longer cowering first-year students. We were seasoned veterans of academic achievement. We had advanced far enough to shoulder some responsibilities, so we elected four of our best as class officers. Many projects followed . . . collections for the Valley of the Sun School . . . the Sophomore Sock Hop . . . burning the midnight oil completing our themes for geography, and another year passed into oblivion. Then came summer vacation, two months of freedom which passed too quickly. We became upperclassmen, although juniors, and we busily engaged ourselves with earning money for the Junior-Senior Prom . . . passing history . . . heckling the freshmen . . . and working in the concession stand. We all began to wonder what we planned to do senior year and after. And then we didn't have to wonder any longer, because it was here. The mails became crammed as seniors sent for and received college catalogs, made choices and filed applications. The midnight oil began to burn again as we studied for college boards and entrance exams. But there are still the things they do to keep the animals quiet . . . Senior Day at the colleges . . . senior class dances . . . the Christmas and Sweetheart Formals . . . the Prom . . . Ditch Day . . . the all night party . . . and then it's over. We practice for Baccalaureate and Commencement . . . receive our diplomas . . . and off into the world we go.

JUNIOR. Old enough to go to the Prom . . . young enough to have no worries about college (well, almost none). But there was a lot of work to do this year. History and the term paper . . . completing college entrance requirements . . . earning money for the Junior-Senior Prom . . . taking ITED tests that left us feeling wrung out . . . clubs . . . athletics . . . homework . . . Homework . . . HOMEWORK!!! For some there was anxiety as various honor clubs and citizen's organizations made choices on who was to be accepted this year. There was Boys' State, Girls' State, and Anytown to try for, and always there was the ambition to improve our class standing. And sometimes you sit back and dream of being a senior . . . having the privilege of looking on while someone else organizes the Prom. But don't concentrate on it too much, class, because before we know it, we will be seniors . . . and the junior year is too good to miss.

WELL, ANOTHER YEAR, and the first thing you did after registering was to go to the Bookstore. When you got there, you were loaded up with books . . . so many that when you staggered to the lockers, dropping books, greeting old friends with the assured air of a seasoned veteran, you were forced to wonder if you had bought the place out. But there were lots of things to do . . . pester freshmen . . . learn more geography than you thought you would ever use . . . the Sock Hop . . . joining interesting clubs . . . going out for athletics . . . yes, your sophomore year was busy. Enjoy it . . . soon it will be over . . . then you take on the responsibilities of an upperclassman.

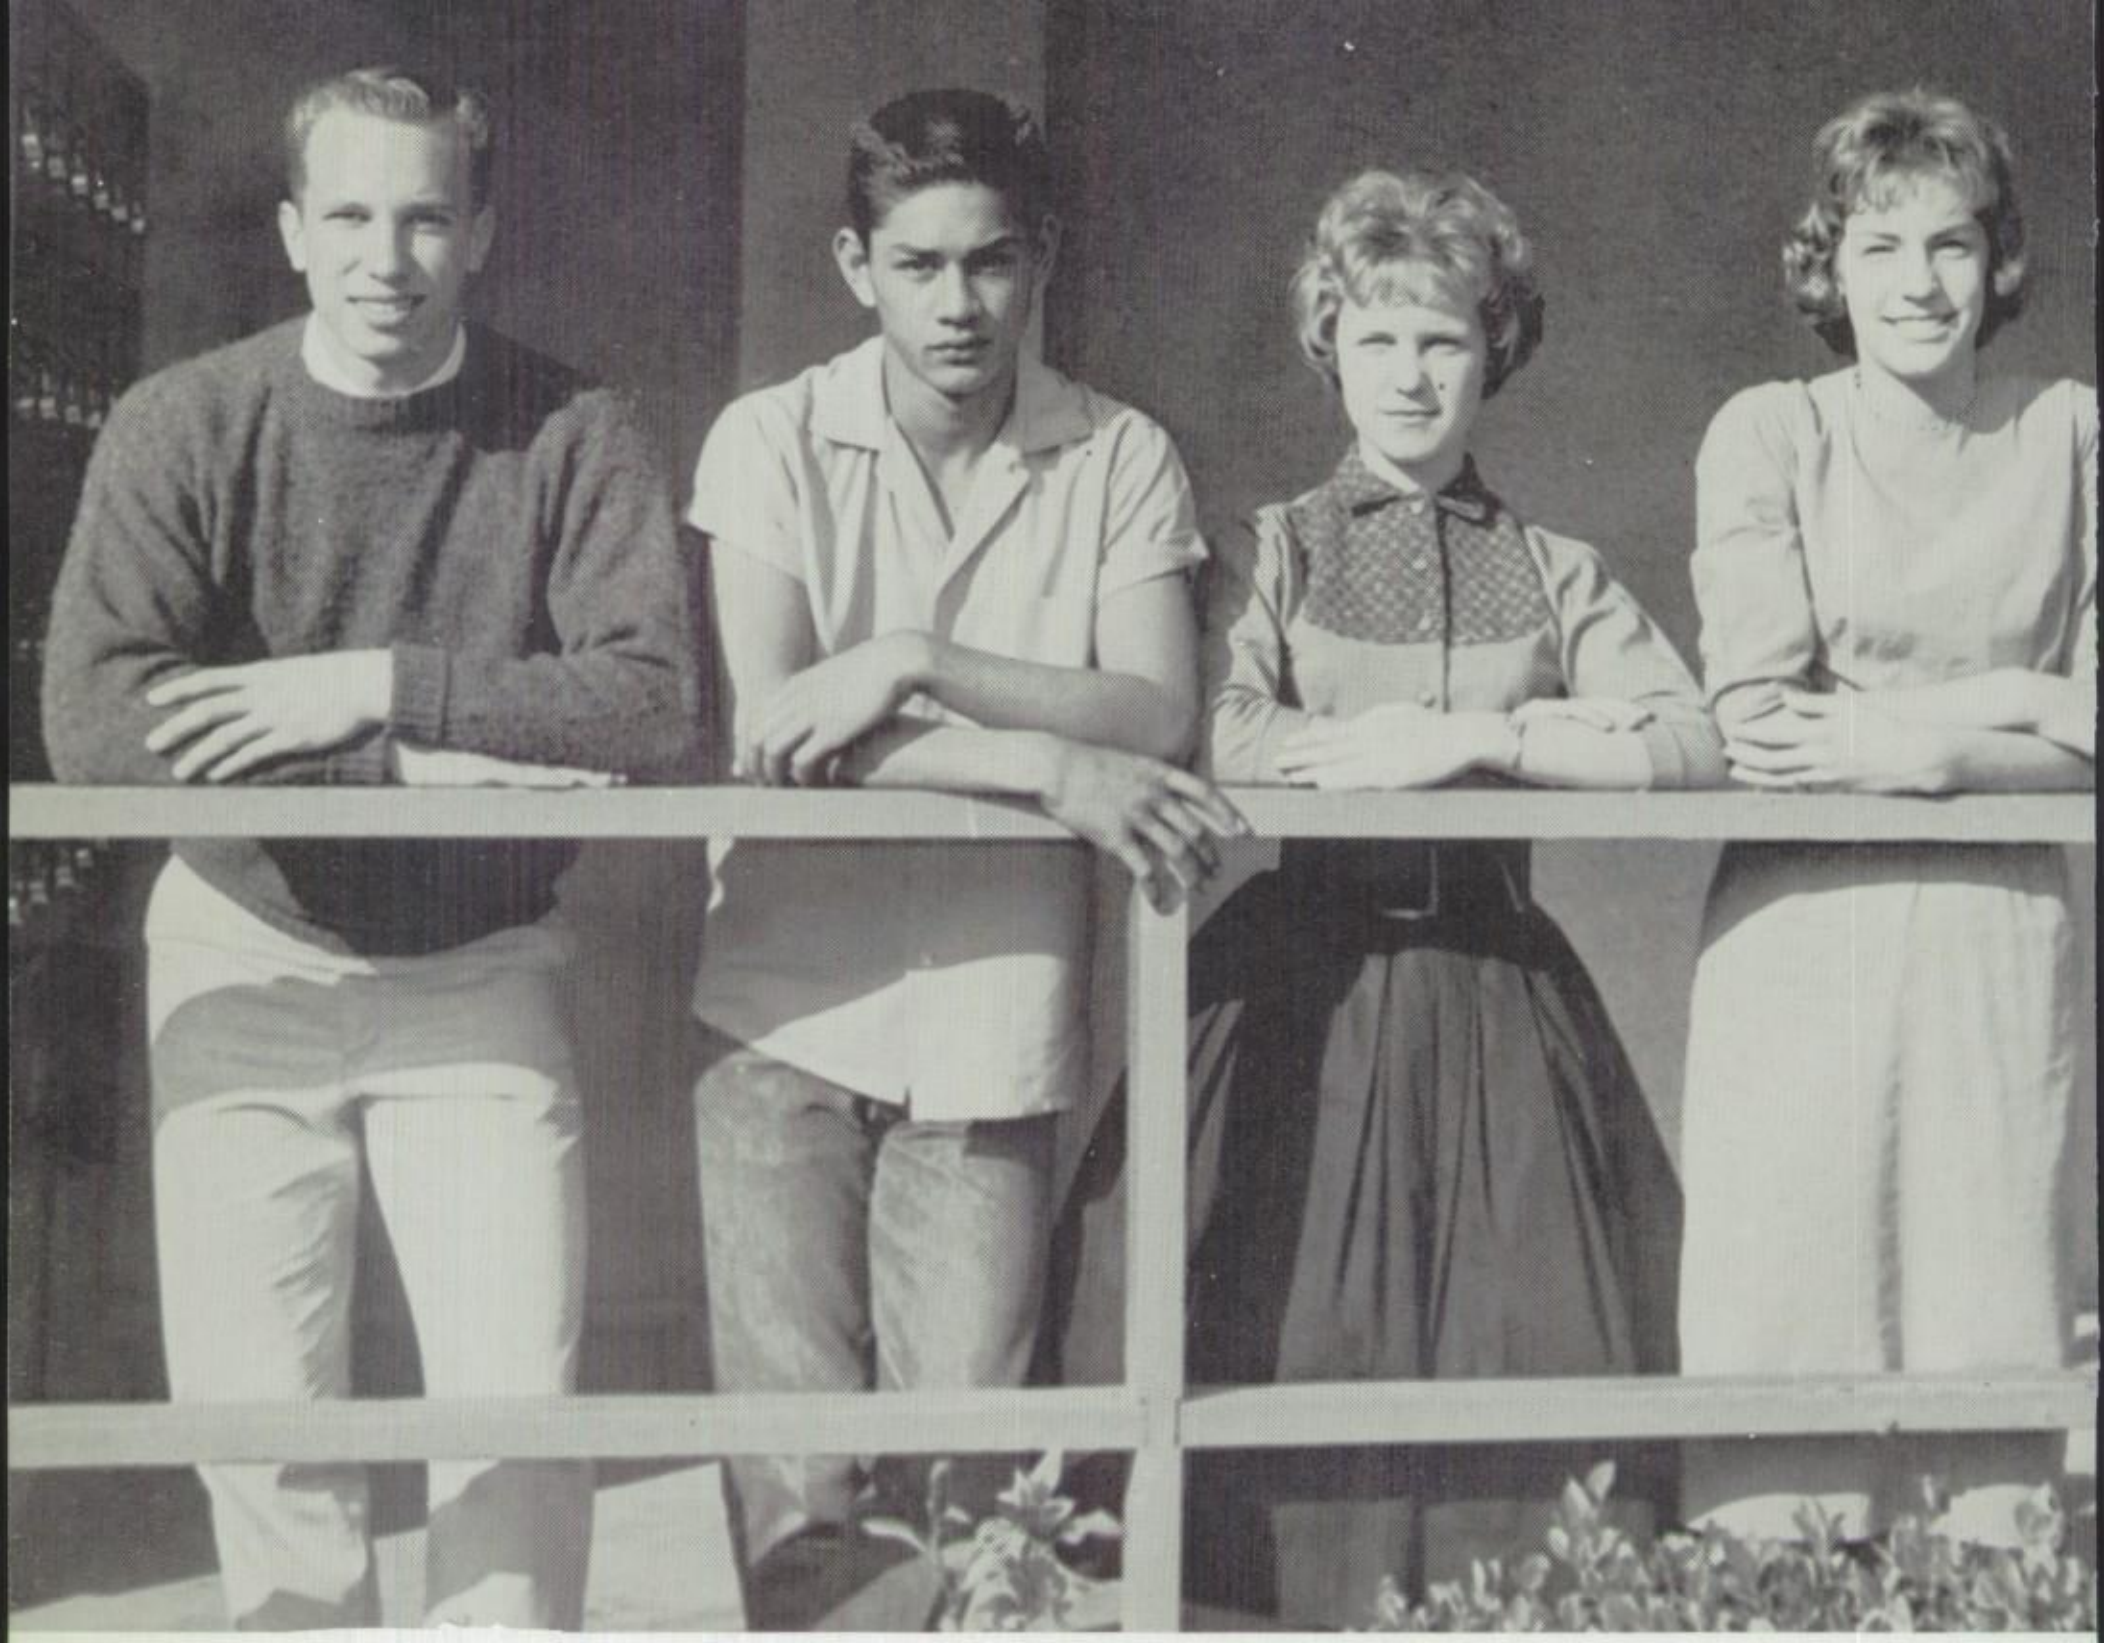
Freshmen



FRESHMAN CLASS OFFICERS: Kent Sellars, President; Paul Tualla, Vice President; Terry Luehrs, Secretary; Vicki Spitler, Treasurer.

FRESHMAN! To the upperclassmen a title filled with memories. It is a year filled with wonder . . . "I wonder where my next class is" . . . "I wonder how they expect us to get this homework done" . . . But then, the wondering (and wandering) ceases and you get into the swing of things. You learn new cheers and shout your throat raw at the pep rallies and ball games. Comes Thanksgiving . . . and Homecoming . . . and everybody tries to out do each other making floats to welcome the old grads. The boys get their first taste of a formal . . . either at the Christmas Formal or the Sweetheart Dance . . . depending upon how bold they are. Semester exams and you wonder again . . . "How did those seniors ever last so long?" But inevitably the frosh rally and make it through the worst forms of brain-washing that the teachers can devise. Then it's downhill, and we prepare to be SOPHOMORES.

Penny Curtis

Foreign Exchange Student From Australia

"Let's wait for Penny, girls."

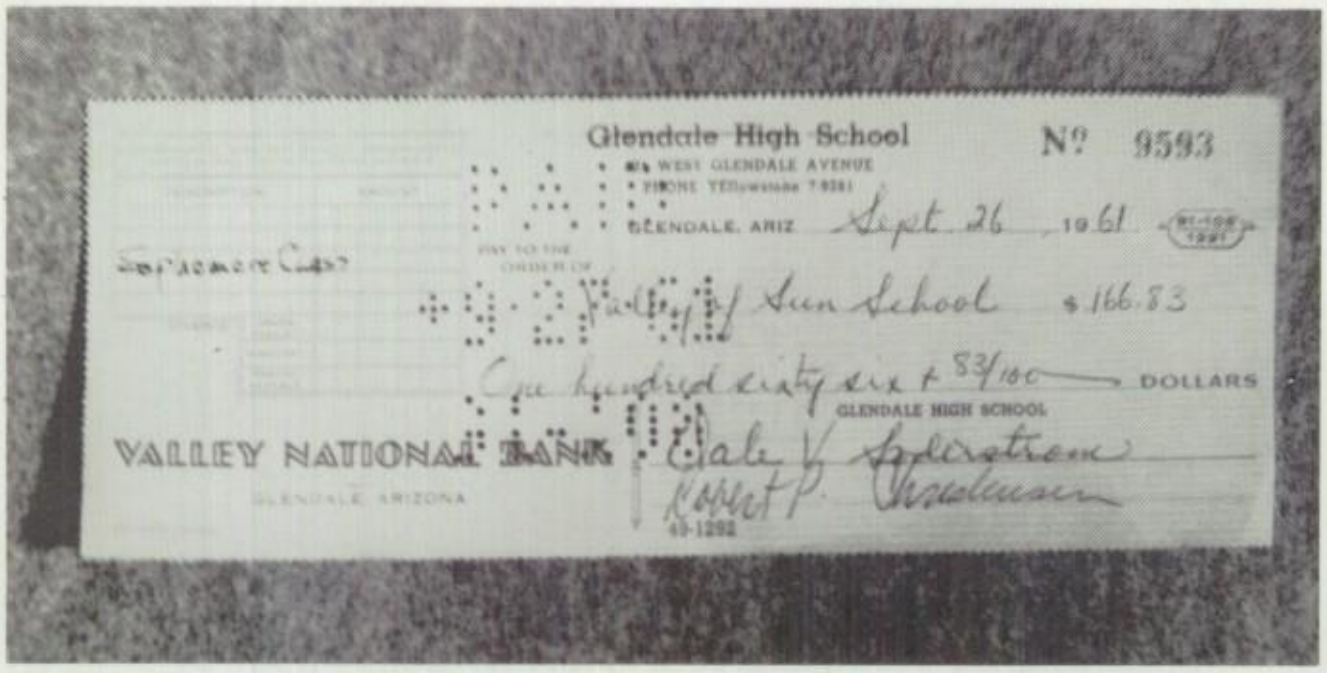
Penny is understandably proud of this picture. She was elected Annual Lettermen's Sweetheart and presented with crown, roses, royal apparel of squaw dress and squaw boots at the Christmas Assem

That Square Dancing really wears these young folks out.

Those Cards are a fun-loving lot. Hey! Get away from my car!

Even the teachers sometimes join in the primitive rites.

New Cards are taking IQ tests . . . look pensive, feel stupid.



The sophomores are justly proud of checks like this. For years the sophomore class has donated money to the Valley of the Sun School.

Swing it, kids, the sophomores won't have to clean up afterwards.

Another Glendale tradition is the annual sock hop sponsored by the sophomores. This year DJ Jim Titus spun the records while the Cards polished the gym floor with their sox. The winners of "Most Outstanding Sox Award" were Richard Reagan, first; Cathy Bailey, second; and Vicki Spitler, third.

Scenes from "Teach Me How To Cry," the winter play. The play was a tremendous success and it had a record turnout.

"I said he wouldn't dare, and then he..."

My Stars! What a bunch of NUTS!

"What?! I don't qualify as a Homecoming cheerleader?"

Glendale's remedy for obnoxious opponents.

This is known as a half-baked idea.

Have you ever seen a more conceited class?

The Homecoming King and Queen and their attendants were crowned at the Cortez game and then Queen and her attendants were chauffeured around the field in these royal chariots.

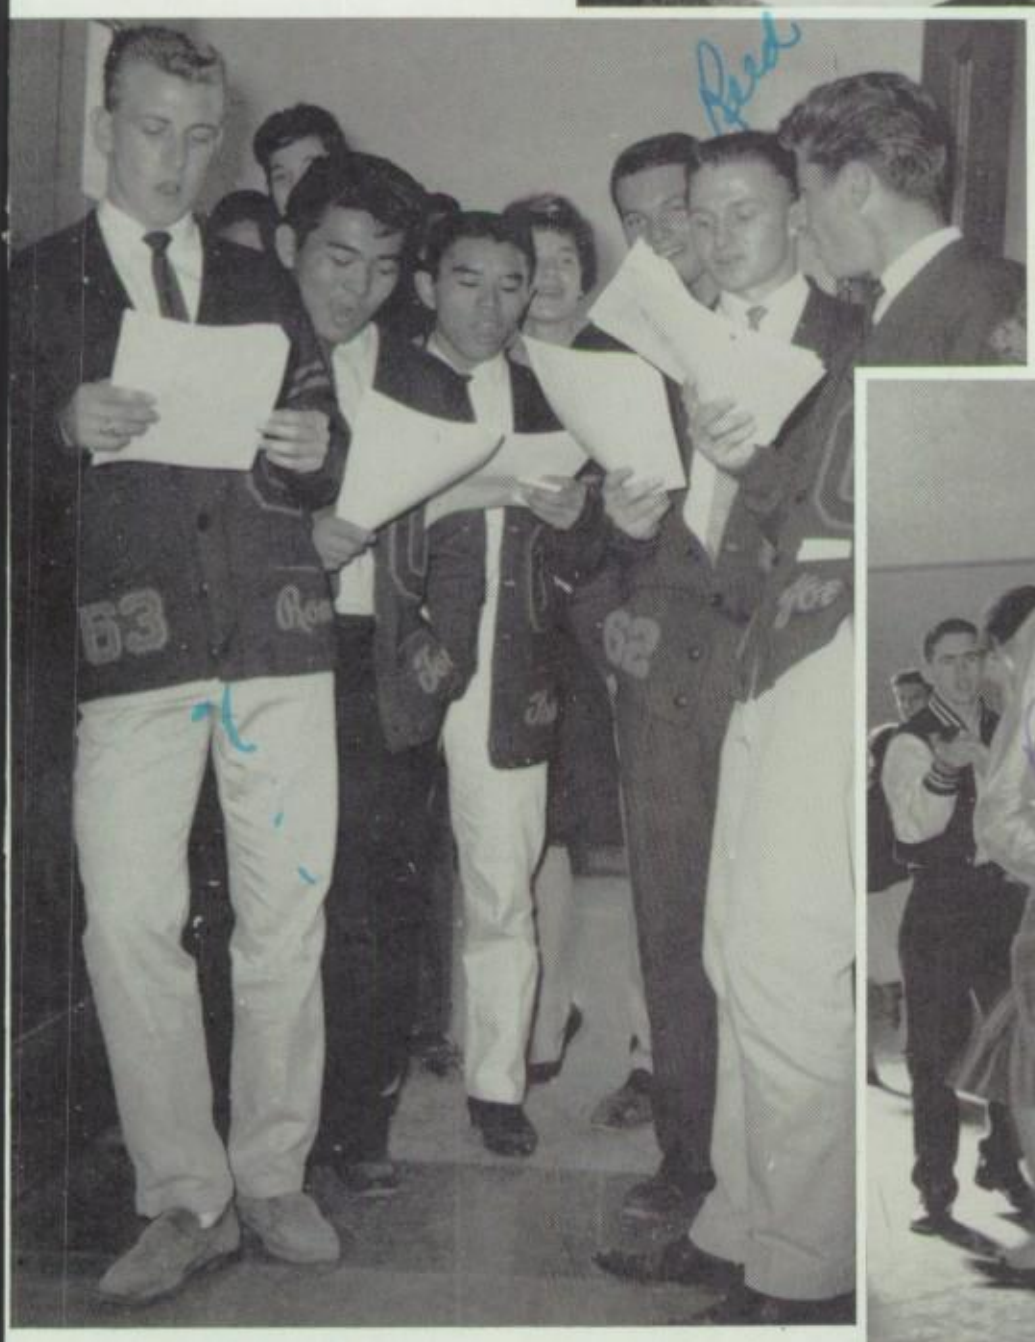
Then everybody, including some of the teachers, went to the Homecoming Dance. Mr. Heatwole and Miss Cloudt seem to be enjoying it along with the rest of the crowd.

Hark! The herald angels shout!
"Three more months and we'll be out!"

No, Dear, you can't eat the mike.

I hear angels singing, this concert must be killing me.

"Hey! What did you put IN this stuff?"



Singing? Or just practicing for the Talent show?

"Darling! Where have you been all my life?"

Penny may be comparing our dances with Australia's.

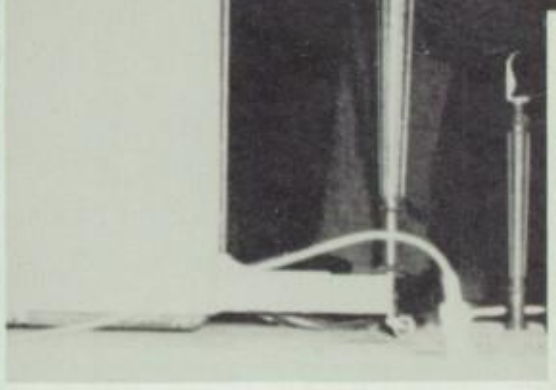
This last year saw two formal dances open to all classes. They were the Christmas Formal and the Sweetheart Dance, both sponsored by Girls' League. If the boys couldn't get up the nerve at Christmas, they went in February.

"I'm sorry." "That's all right, I walk on it, too."

Clear the floor! The Queen is coming!

"I went to the Talent show and look what it did for me."

"No applause, please . . . throw money."



"Jack, get off that picture and play."

This wasn't at the Talent show, but it is world-wide talent.

"Your slip is showing!"

"I use Gleem."

"Aw, You didn't shave your legs."

"Present arms!"

"Leave it to the Thespians to find a way to ride."

"A basket! We made a basket!"

"Apparently this year's Sweetheart Dance was semi-formal."

"Alright, Shutterbug, take that box and get OUT of here!"

"She just carries them to look studious."

"Two-bits for the Junior Class;
SOLD!"

"Do you think he'll cut his finger?"

CONSIDERING that all eleven positions had to be filled by inexperienced combatants the overall season results were very gratifying. Nine of the starting lineup will return next season which should give us a bright perspective.

Glendale had a young, green, cross country team this year which won only two meets. Although our cindermen weren't the best as a team this year, prospects look pretty fair for the coming season.

THE 1961-62 basket team had little to no experience when the season started. Only Dave Storm and Charles Elliott had varsity experience. Vern Cantrell, senior captain, became the outstanding player as the season progressed.

THE SEASON'S record of 7 wins—13 losses, was no indication of the great improvement made throughout the season. In the season's finale, the starting lineup consisted of one senior, three juniors and one sophomore.

GHS will have seven hoopster lettermen returning next year.

I think I'll give up wrestling and go back to flirting with girls.

THE SEASON started out with wrestlers who had very little varsity experience. As the season progressed the team improved and the team hit their peak in the district tournament. For next year we should have a much improved team as most of the varsity will be back.

C'MON RON! This match was supposed to be fixed.

THE 1962 Varsity baseball season could be highly successful if the boys can generate any offensive power. Our hitting is definitely the big question mark at the present time. Our pitching and defensive strength seems to be fairly adequate for the coming season.

This coming summer the unique Spanish architecture of Old Main will be replaced by new, more modern buildings. Many Glendale residents have grown to cherish the old building which has served us faithfully since the beginning of Arizona's statehood. While we are celebrating Glendale High School's Golden Anniversary, let us remember the part Old Main has played throughout the years.

Now that you have gone through all of your annual, stop a minute and let us ask a favor of you. Take another look at the people who helped you buy your book with their advertising. When you get ready to go out for dinner or fill your gas tank or buy groceries or whatever you plan, think of these friendly people who are for YOU, then you show that you are for THEM.

Thanks from the CARDINAL STAFF go to Amanda Butler, Frank Hill and Ronnie Atwood for handling the advertising sales in such a way that many of our friendly merchants complimented them in reports reaching the school.

Thanks, too, to the students who took time from their busy schedules to go out to model for advertising pictures.

Susan,

Didn't we have alot of fun at that Susan? Its been alot of fun having you in Chorus & Drivers Ed. I hope I'll see you again next year Rets a Rock- - - - - - - -

To my dearest, sweetest, most lovable brat,

Well kid— How are you feeling after finally passing this year?? It was a long hard haul, but we finally made it. (didn't we?!)

One thing, You'd better stop all that flirting because pretty soon you'll take all my boy friends away.

Really Suzy it's been a blast knowing you, we've sure had fun driving old man Mayes out of his ever-lovin' gourd, haven't we. You'd better be good, and if you do move, write to me

Suzy Darling,

Well so ends another dull year, or was it. I don't imagine I'll be seeing you around much next year since you'll be in Tempe not that I'll have any regrets / ha ha

You'll probably be married or something next year and I won't see you at all. You could name one of your kids after me or something. I'll make this little note as sweet as possible and won't mention all the fights we've had and all the times I've wanted to wring your pretty little neck I'll just tell you how sweet you are but don't let it go to your head. O.K.

Be Sweet and I'll see you around

P.S.
Stay away from sailors!
